

About us

Missionpharma is a global supplier of generic pharmaceuticals, medical devices, hospital equipment, and medical kits to public and private institutions, international development organisations, and UN entities.

We are driven by our purpose of improving global access to safe and affordable healthcare. Since 1975 we have delivered healthcare products that positively impact the lives of millions of people around the world.

With a dedicated team of 170 employees in five locations on three continents, we work closely with our trusted partners in the global healthcare industry to create long-term positive impact in the countries where we operate.

We maintain the highest standards of quality in our products and services to ensure the safety and well-being of patients.

Together with our sister company, Fazzini, Missionpharma is a proud member of CFAO Healthcare – the healthcare division of CFAO Group owned by Toyota Tsusho Corporation.

Products in stock

Recognising the importance of delivering health products swiftly, we have taken significant steps to maintain stock of generics, branded pharmaceuticals, and medical devices for immediate delivery.

Our product range reflects essential medicines recommended by the World Health Organization in addition to an extensive range of medical supplies. Products are selected to meet the needs of hospitals and pharmacies in the countries where we operate.

Inventory is stored in our GDP-certified warehouses in India and Denmark, spanning over 19,500 m³. This setup allows for fast and efficient deliveries to our customers worldwide. In addition, one of Missionpharma's key priorities is to ensure that our products have a long shelf life both during transit and upon arrival at the final destination.

50 years in healthcare

With 50 years of experience in global healthcare, we are experts in identifying the most reliable suppliers for each of our products.

In a constantly changing world, we possess the agility to support healthcare programmes and to offer emergency deliveries of medical supplies.
